

Dear Friend of HAAM,

It's that time of year -- our 2019 Pillars of the Community Event – when you and your friends have the opportunity to honor three very special members of our HAAM family.

This year's honorees are:

- ❖ Chad and Devon Alexander
- ❖ Louis Flory
- ❖ The Lake Houston Chamber of Commerce

Just once a year, we ask you to participate in our major fundraiser. You have the opportunity to help us continue the mission of help and hope. What we accomplish with your donation is astounding – holiday meals to 1,356 families, Christmas toys to 1,766 children, Job Center assistance to 1,159 clients. The list is endless.

While we depend on our coalition of churches and organizations that provide more than 46,000 volunteer hours each year, we also rely on your generosity to fund our many programs that help clients receive essential resources to move toward self-sufficiency. Humble Area Assistance Ministries is a non-profit organization as described in Section 501 (C) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code: EIN 76-0298820.

Sponsorship details are included for the 2019 Pillars of the Community Event Friday, February 22, 6:00 pm, at the newly remodeled Clubs of Kingwood. Donations for our raffle would be appreciated. Join us by honoring these very special members of our HAAM family and by helping us continue our mission. Our community needs HAAM and HAAM needs you. If you are unable to attend, please consider a donation. We are counting on you!

Sincerely,

Kelly Paull – Chair
